Forecast for Tuesday 27 Oct 2020

Weather: Chilly with some clear spells through the early hours. Cloud will quickly thicken from the west around dawn, bringing spells of patchy rain or drizzle through the morning and early afternoon. Turning drier and somewhat clearer from the west from mid-afternoon onwards.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 60% at first, soon falling to almost no chance as rain sets in and cloud becomes extensive above 400-500m, perhaps lower around Coniston and Scafell Pike. Improving 90% by evening.

Visibility: Becoming widely limited to a handful of kilometres on lower slopes in rain and drizzle but with fog dominating on higher slopes making navigation tricky, especially with the strong winds.
